

Schema for typical web page construction and launch process

1. Decision on domain name.
2. Domain name purchased
3. Domain name set to point to Web Host where files are posted
Domain Name Service

1. Web Pages are constructed
2. The elements involved here are the graphics, HTML, programming, databases, etc.
3. The actual website is no more that a set of composed and interrelated files that will reside on a computer that serves as a webserver

Web Host where files for Client's website will reside. The web server is enabled with security measures, enhancements to process web requests, log files for managing traffic, and other web related criteria.